

Billericay Town 0-5 Cheltenham Town
FA Women's National League, Southern Premier Division
26 April 2026

By Mia Kipling

Build-up

We are officially in the final game week of the FA Women's National League, Premier Division South, at home to Cheltenham Town.

Darcie Drewitt and Mollie Roskilly make their starting debut today against Cheltenham Town.

The Starting Line-ups

Billericay Town – Mackler, Santiago, Roskilly, Hickman, Ford, Evans, Drewitt, Galbally, Sherman, Ralston, Smith ©

Cheltenham Town – Draper, Trinci, Salisbury-Williams, Jones, Evans, Curtis, Hall, Bell, Llewellyn, Owen ©, Pullen

The action

We are officially underway for the last game of the 25/26 season.

Cheltenham take the lead in the 3rd minute after a cross is fed into Bella Hall, and she manages to slot it into the net.

A sharp save from Mackler keeps the away side from doubling their lead.

Mackler makes another incredible save, denying Cheltenham again.

Abbi Smith has a chance on goal, but her chance is denied.

We are awarded a free kick, Smith takes from distance, but her shot goes just over the bar.

The ball is crossed into Owen at the back post, and Mackler makes a great save to deny, but Hall scores.

Some incredible saves from Mackler have denied the away side from being further ahead in this half.

Half Time – Billericay Town 0-2 Cheltenham Town

We are back underway at New Lodge for the second half.

Santiago denies the away side with an incredible block off the line early in the half.

Mollie Roskilly exits the field, with Tecia Ledwidge coming on.

We are awarded a free kick just past the halfway line, which is shot into the box, but unfortunately, no one manages to get a head on it.

An incredible block by Mackler denies the away side again.

Shardonna'e Kekere Ekun replaces Darcie Drewitt

Mackler blocks the away side, tipping their shot over the bar.

Another incredible save by Emily Mackler denies the away side.

A third for Cheltenham, and Hall has her hat-trick.

Nia Evans and Sienna Sherman are replaced by Leyla Priest and Sienna Winslow.

Hall gets through, and she sends a shot towards Galley, who manages to get Cheltenham's fourth

Pullen has the fifth goal of the evening with a shot that just gets past Mackler.

Kekere Ekun has an incredible chance, but the keeper manages to get a hand on it.

Elizabeth Santiago is replaced by Molly Sherrin as fresh legs are introduced.

Mackler pulls off a sensational close-range stop, reacting instantly to deny what looked like a certain goal.

Mackler with another insane block to deny the away side in the last few minutes

A Cheltenham chance hits the crossbar, denying them their sixth

Full Time – Billericay Town 0-5 Cheltenham Town

Today ends our season, after a hard-fought game with Mackler pulling out multiple incredible saves.

Darcie Drewitt and Mollie Roskilly made their starting debuts today, both playing well until being substituted off, and we had six players from the U23S squad featured in our matchday team today.

We are now relegated to the FA Women's National League Division One South East for the 2026-27 season