Real Bedford

Real Bedford Women has its origins in a separate club, Bedford Ladies and Girls F.C., which was founded in 1996. After many years as an independent club dedicated to promoting women's football in the local community, a significant partnership was formed in 2022. Bedford Ladies and Girls F.C. joined forces with the men's club, Real Bedford F.C., with the aim of creating a cohesive and ambitious football structure in the town. This collaboration laid the groundwork for the team's rebrand and entry into a new era of growth.

In May 2023, the club officially became Real Bedford Women. This merger brought with it a commitment to raising the profile of women's football and providing increased support and resources for the team, including access to a stable home at McMullen Park. The team's first season under the new name was a remarkable success, culminating in a league and cup treble and achieving promotion. This rapid success has highlighted the club's ambition and its commitment to climbing the ranks of the English women's football pyramid.
