Billericay Town – Mackler, Ralston, Lambe, Hickman, Jones, Windsor, Birkett, Evans, Smith, Hart, Lempek

The action

We start the game with Oxford's number 10 Emma Thompson kicking us off into game week 7 of the FA Women's National League, Premier Division South

Oxford have an early chance with a cross into the box, but Emily Mackler manages to get a hand on it and brings it down

The Yellows nearly manage to gain a goal in the sixth minute, with a cross landing on Legg's head, going past Mackler. Luckily the flag goes up for offside.

Oxford manage to gain an unlucky goal after Emma Thompson collected a pass and propelled the shot, flying past Mackler's hand and going straight into the back corner of the net

Mackler makes an incredible save in the middle of the goal after Maisy Barkers shot lands on target and nearly goes straight in

Goal number 2 for Oxford, with a goal from Holly Manders, a cross was made into the box and landed on her foot which was taken straight towards Mackler and managing to slot into the goal

And we nearly have another for Oxford within a minute of Manders goal, but luckily the flag goes up for offside. A second disallowed goal for Oxford

The Yellows have another in the 35th minute, Barrett with a cross which this time finds Barker driving in to the box and slotting the ball straight into the net

Oxford gain a fourth on the brink of half time, scored by captain Naomi Bedeau after a deftly placed cross from Palmer finds Bedeau who heads the ball home

Half Time – Oxford United 4-0 Billericay Town 0-4 Oxford United

Erika Lempek kicks us back off into the second half of the FAWNL Southern Premier Division clash between Billericay Town and Oxford United

Oxford have a fifth just after the whistle is blown for the second half, with a second goal for Holly Manders after a ball over the top from Jenkins finds Manders driving towards goal

Oxford gained another in the 49th minute when Bedeau sends the ball forward to Legg who buries the ball in the back of the net

We gain a free kick on the left corner of the box, which is taken by Abbi Smith, crossed towards goal but Beth Wookey manages to get a hand on it

Oxford gain a seventh in the 72nd minute, with a second for Thompson

We have an eighth for Oxford after a thunderous strike from Maisy Barker hits both posts and goes into the back of the net

Oxford have a ninth after a free kick was taken by Holly Manders and is sent into the top corner

Manders takes a corner and Gibson leaps into the air to make it 10 for Oxford.

Full Time – Oxford United 10-0 Billericay Town

Another tough loss to take away at Oxford with a 10-0 loss, we gained a fair few chances, but the game didn't go our way today

All focus shifts to Tuesday evening, where we face Wycombe Wanderers in the Isthmian cup
