Gwalia United

Gwalia United F.C. is the oldest continuously running all-female football club in Wales, founded in 1975 as Llanedeyrn L.F.C. The club underwent several name changes over the years, including Cardiff L.F.C., Inter Cardiff Ladies, and Cardiff County L.F.C.

Most notably, as Cardiff City Ladies, they achieved significant success, winning the Welsh Women's Cup multiple times and representing Wales in the UEFA Women's Cup (now Champions League). In 2024, the club rebranded as Gwalia United F.C., a name chosen to reflect their deep Welsh heritage and national aspirations. They currently compete in the English FA Women's National League Southern Premier Division, being the only Welsh women's team in that system, and have a strong focus on youth development through their Dragons Training Centre.
