Lewes

Lewes F.C. Women was established in 2002 as the women's affiliate of Lewes F.C., a not-for-profit club pioneering 100% fan and community ownership. The team quickly began to climb the football pyramid, achieving promotion to the fourth-tier FA Women's Premier League in 2012 following an unbeaten season. However, the club is best known for its ground-breaking "Equality FC" initiative, which came into effect in 2017.

In a move that garnered global attention, Lewes F.C. became the first professional or semi-professional club in the world to pay its women's team the same as its men's team. This commitment to equal pay and resources propelled the club into the spotlight as a powerful advocate for gender equality in sport. Shortly after this bold step, the team was awarded a place in the newly formed FA Women's Championship in 2018, consolidating their position in the second tier of English women's football and cementing their status as a unique and influential club in the women's game.
